

Niagara Regional Theatre Guild 2024-25 Season Ticket Reservation Form

On the Town: Sep/Oct 2024

Three sailors have just arrived in NYC on a one-day shore leave. As they look for love & adventure, friendship, perseverance and adrenaline help them make the most of their 24 hours in the big city. A classic upbeat musical comedy with music by Leonard Bernstein.

Holiday Inn: Nov 2024

When Jim leaves the bright lights of show business to settle onto a small farm in Connecticut, he quickly finds out that life on the farm ain't all it's cracked up to be. With Linda, a schoolteacher with big dreams, at his side, he looks to turn his farm life around. Music by Irving Berlin.

The Importance of Being Earnest: Jan/Feb 2025

One of Oscar Wilde's best-known works. This late 19th-century farce tells the story of two men who both assume the identity of a fictional man named Earnest. This leads to a long line of hysterical mix-ups and misunderstandings, as they try to keep their secret identities under wraps.

The Mousetrap: Mar 2025

In this timeless Whodunnit story, seven strangers find themselves stranded in a Guest House during a blizzard. One is probably a murderer: can you figure out who it is before the inspector does? This Agatha Christie play is the longest-running play in the world!

Into the Woods: May 2025

Ever wonder what happens after "Happily ever after"? This Sondheim masterpiece musical follows some of the best-known fairy tale characters (Cinderella, Rapunzel, Prince Charming, Little Red, and Jack) in their pursuit of their dreams.
