

Niagara Regional Theatre Guild 2025-26 Season Ticket Reservation Form

A Funny Thing Happened On the Way to the Forum: Sep/Oct 2025

This high-spirited, hysterical musical tells the story of a Roman slave who wants to win his freedom at any cost. His antics lead to outrageous schemes and mistaken identities, and will keep you laughing all night! The hilarious twists and turns are complimented by a classic Stephen Sondheim score.

She Loves Me: Nov 2025

Georg and Amalia are coworkers in a small shop. They bicker with each other constantly - ooooooh, they really get on each other's nerves! - but the plot thickens when each of them reveals their secret pen pal. It's a captivating and timeless story you won't want to miss!

See How They Run: Jan/Feb 2025

Get ready for laugh-out-loud chaos in this fast-paced farce brimming with eccentric characters and outlandish misunderstandings. The plot erupts into a whirlwind of hilarity when a mix of vicars, spies, soldiers, and sherry collide in a zany series of events guaranteed to leave audiences in stitches!

Morning's at Seven: Mar 2025

Step into the nostalgic charm of this heartwarming comedy/drama about family dynamics, secrets, and the quirks of small-town life. Set in the 1930s Midwest, this tender and surprisingly funny play captures the lives of four sisters as tensions and revelations bubble to the surface.

Dirty Rotten Scoundrels: May 2025

Set on the French Riviera, this musical follows two rival con artists - one suave and sophisticated, the other crass and bumbling - as they compete to swindle a wealthy heiress. Packed with catchy songs, sharp humor, cunning schemes, and unexpected twists, it's a perfect close to our 103rd season!
